President's Message

As we begin to close the year 2014, I want to take this opportunity to express my heartfelt gratitude to the folks who have contributed to the historical community. For the Museum of Local History Guild this has been a very eventful year. I've seen so many contributions of volunteer help and in so many, many different forms. Much of this work goes unseen and gets very little notice. From help with mailings to keeping the Museum building looking its best, donations of services from friends and local businesses, historical exhibit materials, the oral histories, and on and on. I could cover a full page with the generous gifts of our community. Thank you!

The people listed here do an incredible amount of work for the Museum. Patricia Schaffarczyk, Tim Swenson, Sister Loretta Marbach, Dianne Holmes, Gerry Curry, Marjory Begley, Kelsey Camello, Ralph and Carol Bell, Stephanie Willits and Praveena. Many of our volunteers have committed days, weeks, months and years of the work to the Museum. Everyone has busy lives and these folks take a lot of time away from other important things to keep our Museum running. It is an embarrassment of wealth they have given us - thank you.

We also want to thank the Tri-City Ecology Center museum crew with the help of Rudy Anema, Gerry Curry, Caroline Harris, Tom Browne, John Landers and Phil Stob. These people work to keep our Museum grounds attractive and help make us a good neighbor to those around us.

We have received some wonderful and generous grants, gifts and help generating more cash to run our key programs and archiving efforts. We were able to match a $5,000 grant from The Despeaux Good Works Fund at the East Bay Community Foundation, which generated over $10,000 for the Regena Dennie Memorial Fund. We have been ambitious this year with school tour projects, oral histories and lots of work on the Higuera Adobe. All of these activities cost a significant amount of money and the help that "you" - the historical community - contributes make it possible. Thank you!

Throughout this year we have significantly benefited from the help of Lila Bringhurst. Lila has contributed to nearly every aspect of Museum operations. From generous help with financing to serving on the Museum board, sourcing, transporting and installing logs for the Adobe school program, and accessing expert help when we've run into difficult issues, Lila's knowledge, strength and personality have been very effective in growing the Museum and the local historical community - thank you.

The City of Fremont's help in maintaining the Museum also deserves a huge thank you! The Museum of Local History Guild has been working with the City of Fremont to develop a closer and ongoing relationship. The City of Fremont has made available our Museum space without cost, and has helped with the grounds and maintenance of the Galindo-Higuera Adobe. The city has also made the Adobe area more accessible and student friendly. The Museum has been invited to participate with the City to develop space at the California Nursery Historical site so that we can contribute to telling the rich history of the area. Thank you Fremont!

As happy as all these accomplishments make me, I'm tempered by the sadness of Regena Dennie's passing on September 12th, 2014. I think she would be pleased to see the progress and vitality of the Museum. One of Regena's constant refrains was that she "kept the Museum doors open". While this is true, it falls very short of what she did over the many years to support, defend, and advocate for the Museum. Regena always seemed to me like a soldier for the Museum - fighting to keep it moving forward in any way she could. It is a great loss to see her gone. She will be missed and remains an important part of the Museum for me. Regena also highlights for me the importance of our historical legacy and first-hand experiences that only our senior members can give us.

Happy holidays to everyone and thank you!

- Gil Garza

Collections - Year in Review

We continue to catalogue our collections and we have added many items this year. Highlights include:

The Philip Holmes Collection continues to grow. We have added many files to the Philip Holmes clippings collection. For more than 40 years Mr. Holmes has collected and researched the history of Washington Township, and he has written articles in local newspapers from 1990 through the present. His articles are currently published in Tri-City Voice. His collection of research files, photographs, archival materials and other items are housed at the museum.

Butter churn

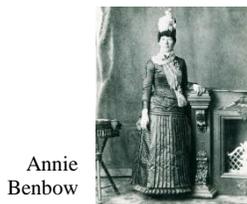

The Diane Leys Collection includes a butter churn, crank phonograph and a tabletop radio. These items were from the Gomes house and farm. John Gomes, Diane Leys' father, lived his life in the family home that was built by his grandfather, Manuel Silva.

The Regena Dennie Collection includes books and files Regena collected during her years of volunteering at the Museum of Local History and as a member of the Washington Township Historical Society.

Regena Dennie

The BJ Bunting Collection includes many items and photographic images of BJ and his family, which date as far back as the mid 1800s.

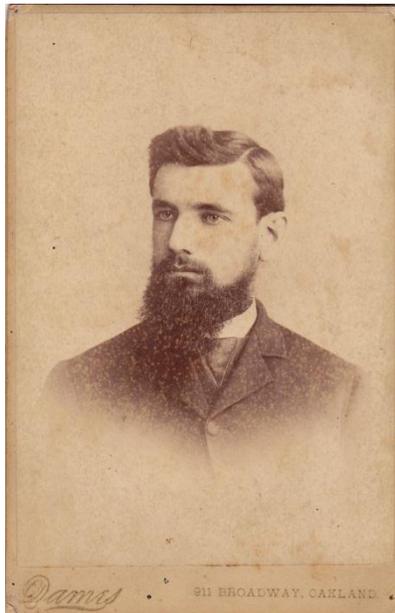

Annie Benbow

The Nelda Erlwein Collection includes original framed portrait photographs of Nelda's family, the Benbow Family. Thomas and Annie Benbow arrived in California in 1859, and Nelda's brother, Wes Hammond, wrote the book, Remembering my Life in Irvington, California, and Other Memories: 1931-1943.

The Lila Bringham Collection includes a collection of electrical insulators collected from houses in the area.

Matthew R. Lyle

In November, Kathy Gustafson contacted the Museum. She is the great-granddaughter of Matthew R. Lyle, who built the store in Alvarado that now houses Bronco Billy's Pizza.

Her grandmother, Helen Lyle, was a teacher at Alvarado Grammar School from 1914 to 1917. She married the school principal Thomas Creed in 1917.

Kathy was able to provide the Museum with photographs of Mr. Lyle, Helen, other family members, and a few of the school and its students. These are the only known photographs of the family. Kathy also provided copies of documents relating to Helen and Thomas in regards to the grammar school. One picture shows a number of students exercising in the schoolyard, but the buildings in the background are the most interesting part. It may be the only picture existing that shows the buildings from that time and angle.

Kathy was also able to provide some essential family information so that the Lyle family could be added to the Union City Pioneer Genealogical database.

We are always looking for treasures you may have tucked away that would add to our collection of local history. Remember us with items, photographs, papers, etc.

Historical Groups Look to Combine into a Single Organization

In the impressively appointed I.O.O.F Hall #114 the Washington Township Historical Society, Mission Peak Heritage Foundation and the Museum of Local History Guild met on November 30th, 2014. The three organizations discussed the option of combining into a single organization. One of the important values under consideration as an impetus for combining is to be able to speak with one voice as we work with the cities of Fremont, Newark and Union City. There are several projects where good city cooperation with a unified group of history organizations could help enhance our ability to share history and improve both visibility and reach in the community.

The meeting was open to the public with everyone having an opportunity to give their input/perspective and to ask questions.

December 24th is the deadline for Museum of Local History member ballots to be received by either postal mail or hand delivery to the Museum. The vote is a yes/no on proceeding with planning the combining of the three organizations.

Exhibits

Everyone is welcome to visit the museum to view the Alameda County Water District exhibit. It will be removed at the end of January to make way for the Teddy Ruxpin Exhibit, which will be unveiled in February, just in time for the talk by Dr. Pimentel on the same subject.
