

Alphabetical by Last Name	Main Title	Creator: Producer; Interviewer: Performer	2. interview or talk, etc	Description or Content Summary	Topic	Category
Abreu, Manuel and BJ Bunting	Manuel Abreu and BJ Bunting	Interviewer: Philip Holmes Creator: Philip Holmes	Interview	Part 1 1. Manuel Abreu came to Alviso area in 1921. Manuel talks about Farias, work, and the blacksmith shop. The interview was done on Oct 6, 1993 in Glenmore. 2. BJ Bunting discusses working in the railroad and being a yard master near Shinn house. Part 2 BJ Bunting continues his talk about the railroads in and near Niles.	Alviso area, Niles	Archives
Amaral , Antone S.	Antone S. Amaral	Interviewer: Bruce MacGregor Creator: Robert Fisher Others in tape: Antones children Jewel and a son, Donald or Lester.	Interview	Part 1 of 2 Antone was born and raised in Newark in 1883. He talks about George Patterson and other large land owners, Henry Burdoc, Newark school, artisan wells. Part 2 of 3 Antone had the Midway Garage on Jarvis and Fremont Blvd where he raised his family. Talks about Newark salt industry, farming, the railroad, Dugan Hotel and Carter Car Co., foundries.	Newark	Archives
Amaral , Antone S.	Antone S. Amaral	Interviewer: Bruce MacGregor Creator: Robert Fisher Others in tape: Antones children Jewel and a son, Donald or Lester.	Interview	Part 3 of 3 Anthony Bettencourt continues to talk about Newark area, Jarvis Landing, Mowry & Larkin Landings, shipping along the bay.	Newark	Archives
Angua, Hal	Hal Angus (1)	Creator: Philip Holmes	Talk	1. Hal Angus talks about living in Niles and memories of Essanay Film Studio.	Niles	Archives

Angua, Hal	Hal Angus (2)(3)(4)	Creator: Philip Holmes	Talk	2. Hal Angus talks about Essanay days. (in the middle is a movie that should be taken out) 3. Hal Angus continues his discussion of Niles and Essanay studios. 4. Hal talks about filming then (3:49) the movie is put on) (clip the movie out) Frank Copeland talks about baseball in Niles during Essanay times.	Niles / Essanay Studios	Archives
Angus, Hal and Marie Sharp Bishop	Hal Angus and Marie Sharp Bishop	Interviewer: Robert Fisher Creator: Richard Contreras	Talk	Hal and Marie talk about Niles and the Essanay personalities in the town of Niles.	Niles / Essanay Studios	Archives
Bettencourt, Anthony and BJ Bunting	Anthony Bettencourt and BJ Bunting	Interviewer: Philip Holmes Creator: Philip Holmes	Interview	Anthony Bettencourt, born in 1916 and raised in Niles, talks about living on a farm and working on building the new bridge in Niles in 1935. He also talks about Frank "Fat" Rose who started a pottery sales business and the International Kitchen Restaurant which was later bought by Quernars.	Niles	Archives
Bishop, Marie	Marie Bishop	Interviewer: Philip Holmes Creator: Philip Holmes	Interview	Marie Bishop talks about Portuguese immigrants farming near Niles, memoirs of the Essanay actors including Anderson and Chaplin, and the Belvoir Hotel.	Niles	Archives
Brazil, Maria	Maria Brazil and her son Rudy Brazil	Interviewer: Nancy Lorrigan	Interview	Maria came to Centerville around 1926 from the Azores, visiting relatives with her parents. Maria married and stayed, she had 4 boys, one Phil Brazil with Fremont schools, Edward with Newark Fire Dept., Rudy a businessman. Her husband worked for Morton Salt. Lots of talk about businesses and growing up in Centerville. Maria was very active in civic and church organizations.	Centerville, Newark	Archives
Callow, Marge	Marge Callow	Talk	Talk & Slideshow	Marge Callow discusses her family history and the history of Newark	Newark	Archives

Chadbourne, Ed	Ed Chadbourne	Interviewer: Robert B. Fisher Creator: Robert B. Fisher	Interview	Ed Chadborne looks at pictures and discusses a few of the "old timers" including Wally Pond,( "Duck" Pond), Evelyn Telles, Doc Grimmer, Julia Rix, and also there's some info about the old winery that used to be on what's now Osgood Rd. at the corner of Washington Blvd. When Ed was a teenager, he talked about playing in the ruins of the winery, so it wasn't torn down for quite a few years after the 1906 earthquake destroyed it.	Irvington	Archives
City of Fremont 1st city council meeting and interviews	City of Fremont 1st city council meeting and interviews	Meeting	Interviews & Meeting	Re-presentation of original recordings of the first Fremont City Council meeting Jan 23, 1956 with commentary by Dave Breninger recorded in 1969. Gerhart Burt recorded and intervied the participants.	Fremont	Archives
Copeland , Frank Raymond	Frank Raymond Copeland	Creator: Philip Holmes	Talk	Frank Raymond Copeland was born in Irvington in 1899. He talks about Irvington with descriptions of people, places and events,	Irvington	Archives
Cornish, Ellen	Ellen Cornish	Talk	Talk	Ellen Cornish county librarian dicusses 1. how to find local history information in the libraries 2. local wineries 3. fisher speaks (inaudible)	Library, Cornish	Archives
Costa, Tina	Tina Costa	Interviewer: Philip Holmes Creator: Philip Holmes	Interview	Tina (Leotine) Costa was born in Niles (1907).Tina tells about her family, Essanay days, growing up in Niles. Tina married at age 16 and worked for the Pioneer newspaper. She also describes Alvarado and her husband talks a bit about Newark.	Niles	Archives

Datanich, Brenda and Lolly, Rita	Brenda Datanich and Rita Lolly	Interviewer: Steve Fisher Creator: Unknown	Interview	Mrs. Brenda Catanich, 89 years old, tells about people she knew and places in Drawbridge when they visied between1923 to 1940. Her husband hunted ducks there. Mrs. Rita Lally, 77 years old, tells about what it was like to visit Drawbridge for weeks at a time. She tells about the Sprung Hotel, other residents, walking to Alviso on the tracks and other memorable incidents	Drawbridge	Archives
Dedication	Dedication of the Higuera Adobe	Speakers: Robert B. Fisher and Father William Abeloe	Talk	At the dedication ceremony of the authentic re-building of the Higuera adobe Dr. Robert Fisher speaks about six layers of history represented in the unique location of Washington Township, then about Spanish and Mexican land grants. Next Father Abeloe talks about the Higuera adobe history as we know it.	Warm springs	Archives

Dedication	Part 1: Dedication Ceremony of Lake Elizabeth in Fremont, March 22, 1969; 1st Fremont City Council meeting in new civic center council chambers, March 29, 1969 (continued)	Talk	Meeting & Talk	Part 1: Dedication Ceremony of Lake Elizabeth in Fremont, March 22, 1969; 1st Fremont City Council meeting in new civic center council chambers, March 29, 1969 (continued)	Fremont	Archives
Dedication	Part 2- (continued) First Fremont City Council Meeting in new government building, March 29, 1969	Meeting	Meeting & Talk	Part 2- (continued) First Fremont City Council Meeting in new government building, March 29, 1969	Fremont	Archives
Dias , Fred	Fred Dias	Interviewer: Philip Holmes Creator: Philip Holmes	Interview	Fred Dias came to Niles in 1905 and talks about memories of Essanay film and the actors. Fred also talks about living in a farming community. Fred's daughter, Winifred Enos is also present.	Niles, Dias	Archives

DiGiulio, Louis	Louis DiGiulio	Interviewer: Philip Holmes Creator: Philip Holmes	Interview	Louis DiGiulio's family owned the Pontiac Garage in Niles. He reviews a list of names of Niles personalities and also talks about the Niles Sign. Louis says there were four bars in town, the Wesley Hotel, the Stumble-Inn, the Traveler's Rest, and Sam Thornally's poolroom (where Joe's Corner is). One of the bars had a parrot that would say "Check the carriage" and eventually the Prohi's (revenueurs) figured out that's where the bottle was hiding.	Niles	Archives
Drawbridge	Drawbridge: The Bay Area's Sinking Ghost Town	Steve Fisher narrates the history of Drawbridge and interviews the following people: Dr. Robert Fisher (historian), Ted Harpainter (Fremont City official), Brenda Catanich, Rita Lolly, Charles Luth (former residents), Walter Stieglitz (SF Bay Wildlife Refuge manager)	Movie/Interviews	Steve Fisher narrates the history of Drawbridge and interviews the following people: Dr. Robert Fisher (historian), Ted Harpainter (Fremont City official), Brenda Catanich, Rita Lolly, Charles Luth (former residents), Walter Stieglitz (SF Bay Wildlife Refuge manager)	Drawbridge	Archives
Drawbridge	Drawbridge and Landings of Washington Township	Speakers: Lila (unknown), Harry Avila. Robert Fisher	Talk	1. Lila (unknown) talks about the history of Drawbridge, 2. Harry Avila briefly talks about Warm Springs personalities and the Japanese and 3. Robert Fisher conducts a slide show with historical maps and slides of landings from Alvarado area south to Warm Springs.	Wetlands, Drawbridge	Archives
Driscoll	Driscoll	Interviewer: Robert B. Fisher Creator: Robert B. Fisher	Interview	Brother and sister talk about the James C. Whipple family of Hayward and Decota areas.	Irvington	Archives

Elliot, Tom	Tom Elliot	Interviewer: Philip Holmes Creator: Philip Holmes	Interview	Thomas Elliott (blacksmith for Essanay) and his wife Bertha Abrott Elliott talk about the Essanay Studio and how it was to have a movie studio in Niles. Their daughter was Theo Overacker.	Niles	Archives
Fernandez, Shirley	Shirley Fernandez	Interviewer: Philip Holmes/Regina Dennie Creator: Philip Holmes	Interview	Shirley Fernandez talks about life in Mission San Jose; school, church, and the Mission.	Mission San Jose	Archives
Fisher, robert	Dr. Robert Fisher on Patterson and Shinn Properties	Talk	Talk	This is a tour conducted by Dr. Robert Fisher, of first the Patterson Ranch, secondly of the Shinn property. At the beginning he is promoting the creation of a "Pioneer Village" at the ranch. This would have been when Brooks & Singer Developers still owned the house, before ranch was opened to the public, and Mission Peak Heritage was still restoring it.	Shinn and Patterson	Archives
Fisher, Robert	Dr. Robert B. Fisher	Speaker: Robert B. Fisher	Talk- Part 1 (0-1:50 is repeated from other part. Cut this piece from part 1)	Part 1. Dr. Robert Fisher, historian, presents a slideshow & talk of Mission San Jose history Part 2. Robert Fisher talks about megalithic "treasures" and the mystery of these rock formations and about petroglyphs of the Mission Hills area. These are taped notes regarding the rock structures.	Mission San Jose	Archives

Fong, Joshua	Dr. Joshua Fong and Laura Azeveda	Interviewer: Philip Holmes Creator: Philip Holmes	Interview	1. Joshua Fong's father came from China in 1917. Joshua was born in Centerville and grew up in Niles. He talks about his family farm in Niles, the Chinese camps, school, etc. 2. Laura Azeveda was born in Newman in 1914, California and was raised by Joseph and Laura Senac in Mission San Jose. She lives in the same home on Ellsworth Street where she grew up. Laura talks about her adopted family and the neighbors and businesses in town. .	Niles, Mission San Jose , Chinese	Archives
Fremont City Council Meeting regarding Warm Springs Hotel	Fremont City Council Meeting regarding Warm Springs Hotel	Meeting Excerpts	Meeting	Public discussion at city council meeting regarding use plan for Warm Springs Hotel property. Speakers include: Unknown, Dean Preston, Dr. Robert Fisher, Sherry Nighshwonger	Warm Springs	Archives
Gordon, Wesley	Wesley Gordon, 1975-10-25	Talk	Talk	Wesley Gordon, teacher and paleontologist, led groups of students to excavate /collect fossils from the Bell Quarry in Irvington , Ca. Wesley discusses the Bell family, the excavations and the importance of this location. This talk is in conjunction with a slide show and fossil examples.	Irvington, Quarry	Archives
Gordon, Wesley	Wesley Gordon, 1976-10-07	Talk	Talk	Wesley Gordon, teacher and paleontologist, led groups of students to excavate /collect fossils from the Bell Quarry in Irvington , Ca. Wesley discusses the Bell family, the excavations and the importance of this location. This talk is in conjunction with a slide show and fossil examples.	Irvington, Quarry	Archives

Gordon, Wesley	Wesley Gordon, 1978-01-10	Talk/Discussion	Talk/Discussion	Part 1. Wesley Gordon gives a slideshow and talk about the fossil findings at the Bell Quarry in Irvington, Ca. Part 2. Group discussion about where Wesleys collection of fossils should be housed.	Irvington, Quarry	Archives
Gould, Pop	Pop and Tillie Gould	Interviewer: Philip Holmes Creator: Philip Holmes	Interview	Vernon "Pop" Gould and Tillie Logan Gould talk about Washington High School , football, athletic fields and plaques. Pop Gould was principal of Washington High School and Tillie was from the Logan Family.	Centerville, Decoto, Gould	Archives
Gould, Pop	Pop Gould	Talk	Talk	Vernon "Pop" Gould presents a brief history of his time in Washington Township (beginning in 1924) and his views of the communities that now make up Union City. The first half of the meeting is Gould speaking and the second half of the presentation includes residents speaking about Union City.	Union City	Archives
Historical Architectural; Review Board	Historical Architectural Review Board (HARB) meeting at Ohlone College regarding Weed Replica Building in Mission San Jose	Recorded by: Dr. Robert B. Fisher	Meeting	RE-recording of the Histoical Archtecturaal Review Board meeting.	Ohlone College Property	Archives
Kaiser , Harriet Tyson Kaiser	Harriet Tyson Kaiser	Interviewer: Nancy Lorrigan Creator: Nancy Lorrigan	Interview	Harriet Tyson Kaiser talks about the Tyson family in Niles and the many relationships. She has many stories of the families.	Niles	Archives

Karp, Mrs.	Mrs. Karp	Interviewer: Robert Fisher Creator: Robert Fisher	Interview	Mrs. Karp came to the Niles area in 1919 to run a rest home with her husband. She bought the Pickering house later. There is some discussion of various houses in the area and a little bit on Niles when she first arrived.	Niles	Archives
Kern, Ruy	Ruy Kern		local history class. Recorded by Robert B. Fisher	Ruy Kern is a descendant of JJ Vallejo. Ruy narrates the family history in Mission San Jose and Vallejo Mills. He also describes several family pictures and artifacts.	Mission San Jose, Niles Vallejo	Archives
Kidder, Norm	Norm Kidder	Talk	Talk & tour	Norm Kidder leads a tour and talk to the Ohlone Mound and discusses Ohlones at Coyote Hill.	Ohlone	Archives
Knofs, Keith	Keith Knofs	Interviewer: Bruce MacGregor Creator: Bruce MacGregor	Interview	Mr. Knofs talks about the Graham foundry and the stove manufacturing. His father in law was George Graham, brother of James. He was in the sales department and seems to have worked mostly out of San Francisco. Lots of discussion of the different types of stoves made in Newark. He tells a quick story that the name Wedgewood came from an actual wedge of wood, not the English pottery. There's some talk near the end about the Graham house in Newark.	Newark Alviso family	Archives
Lowrie, Elizabeth	Elizabeth Lowrie Part 1	Interviewer: Robert B. Fisher	Interview	Part 1 Elizabeth was born near the Patterson ranch in 1888. She talks about the Patterson Ranch, downtown Centerville and the people who lived there and discusses Dumbarton Point.	Centerville, Patterson ranch , Decoto	Archives
Lowrie, Elizabeth	Elizabeth Lowrie Part 2	Interviewer: Robert B. Fisher	Interview	Part 2 Elizabeth discusses Irvington including county county libraries. She lived in Irvington, Decoto and Centerville.	Centerville, Patterson ranch , Decoto	Archives

MacGregor, Bruce	Bruce MacGregor	Speaker: Bruce MacGregor	Talk	Bruce MacGreger talks about the history of the South Pacific Railroad and the City of Newark, plus the return of caboose #47, originally built in Newark.	Newark	Archives
MacGregor, Bruce and Mike Bitsko	Bruce MacGregor and Mike Bitsko	Speakers: Bruce MacGregor and Mike Bisko	Talk	1. Bruce MacGreger discusses the wetlands and human impact on them 2. Mike Bitsko, Don Edwards SF Bay National Wildlife Refuge interpreter, discusses wetlands and historic preservation of Drawbridge, Alviso and Newark Landing	Newark	Archives
Mackintosh, Earl	Slayton's Pioneering by Earl Mackintosh	Talk	Talk	Earl MacIntosh talks about his grandfather, Osman O Slayton. He also tells about the building of the Blaisdell house, Centerville Presbyterian Church and some family stories.	Niles, Centerville	Archives
Mosegard, Ferdinand and Palmyra	Ferdinand and Palmyra Mosegard	Interviewer: Philip Holmes Creator: Philip Holmes	Interview	Ferdinand Mosegaard was born in Centerville in 1897. His father owned Storybrook Park in Niles Canyon. Ferdinand remembers about the Essanay movies productions. His wife, Palmyra Pine Mosegaard, was born in Alviso and lived on Mowry Road.	Centerville, Niles - Stonybrook	Archives
Ohlone College	Ohlone College Board Meeting Excerpts: New Location of College Campus	Meeting	meeting	Ohlone college board meeting discussing location of the new campus.	Ohlone College	Archives
Oral History excerpts	Oral History excerpts		interview excerpts	Interview excerpts introduced by Robert Fisher including: Elizabeth Lowrie, Antone Amaral-trains, Nellie Dollins, Antone Amaral-landings, Tom Wauhab, Margaret Overacker, Marie Bishop and Hal Angus, Ernestine Rose Alviso Chapman Ponsford	Mixed	Archives

Overacker, Margaret	Margaret (Granny) Overacker	Interviewer: Robert B. Fisher Creator: Robert B. Fisher	Interview	Margaret tells how she came from Ireland at age 17 with her brothers. They discuss the extended overacker family and the property they owned in the area.	Niles, Overacker	Archives
Parry, Jack	Jack Parry (Part of the Maurice Marks Local History Collection)	Interviewer: Irma Ruiz	Interview	Jack Parry talks about Fremont incorporation and the first years of the city.	Fremont	Archives
Parry, Jack	Jack Parry talks about growing up in Niles	Interviewer: Philip Holmes Creator: Philip Holmes	Talk	Born in 1920 Jack talks about living and growing up in Niles. His dad was a blacksmith for Essanay. Other topics include the quarries (Pacific Coast Aggregate), Frank "Fat" Rose, trains, boy scouts, Roedings, Shinns, Kimber, Blacow.	Niles	Archives
Pereira, Winnie	Winnie Pereira	Interviewer: Philip Holmes, Regina Dennie Creator: Philip Holmes		At her home on Bay Street, Irvington, Ca. Winnie Pereira talks about Old Mission San Jose, the stores and people that were in the area while she was growing up.	Mission San Jose	Archives
Pine, Mike	Mike Pine and his mother, Mrs. Vincent (Maria) Pine	Interviewer: Student at Hopkins Junior High Creator: Unknown	Interview	Students are interviewing the Maria Pine whose family owned the property where Hopkins Junior High is located. Marie's grandfather came to Irvington in 1904. Maria describe the farm and the area in the 1940s.	MSJ	Archives
Pond, Wallace	Wallace Pond	Speaker	Speaker	Wallace Pond talks about Irvington when he arrived with his parents and siblings in 1921. His father was a pharmacist Wallace describes Irvington through rich descriptions and stories. He also talks about the main roads of Fremont.	Irvington	Archives
Ponsford, Ernestine Rose Alviso Chapman	Ernestine Rose Alviso Chapman Ponsford	Interviewer: Robert B. Fisher	Interview	Ernestine Ponsford is a decendent of the Alviso family of the Newark area. She remembers her relatives and family gatherings.	Newark Alviso family	Archives

Power , Randy	Randy Power	Speaker: Randy Power Creator: Robert B. Fisher	Question and Answers	Randy Power talks about John M. Horner, pioneer of Washington Township	John Horner	Archives
Roderick, Maime, Flores, Annie and Clarence	Maime Roderick, Annie Flores and Clarence Flores	Interviewer: Philip Holmes Creator: Philip Holmes	Interview	Maime Amaral Roderick (1896), Annie Amaral Flores (1903 )and Annie's husband, Clarence Flores discuss growing up in Alvarado. They talk about Chinatown and floods . Their father, Joe Amaral operated a barber shop and bar in Alvarado	Alvarado	Archives
Roeding, Bruce and Mr. and Mrs. George C Roeding Jr	Bruce Roeding and Mr. and Mrs. George C Roeding Jr.	Interviewer: Philip Holmes Creator: Philip Holmes	Interview	Bruce Roeding talks about the Roeding family and the California Nursery which participated in the 1915 Panama Exposition, and the 1939-1940 Golden Gate International Exposition. The also hosted an annual bulb show on the nursery grounds. Bruce and his mother also talk about Niles during and after WWII.	Niles	Archives
Rose , Dolores	Dolores Rose	Interviewer: Philip Holmes Creator: Philip Holmes	Interview	Dolores Rose talks all about what it was like growing up in Niles from the 30s to the 50s when tract were built and some of the "old timers" moved out. There were stories about what the town was like and that it seemed very isolated and had little happening. Joe's Corner was her favorite place and the kids would go there to get ice cream from the stand out in front of there. She grew up in the Depression era so she talked about the hobos that came in on the. She also talked about World War II and how many men left and others went to work in shipyards, etc. This interview gives a good picture of life in Niles up until it became part of Fremont.	Niles	Archives

Silva, Mary	Mary Silva	Interviewer: Philip Holmes Creator: Philip Holmes	Walking tour	Mary Silva came to Alvarado from the Azores in 1904 at the age of 7. Her entire life was in Alvarado. She worked at Leslie Salt. Mary talks about China town and many buildings and people she remembers. Two events that are discussed at length are the 1906 earthquake and the constant flooding due to inadequate levies. Part 1- Mary Silvas talks on a walking tour of Alvarado and then the group talks in are Marys home.	Alvarado	Archives
Silva, Mary	Mary Silva	Interviewer: Philip Holmes Creator: Philip Holmes	Walking tour	Part 2. Mary Silva is interviewed in her home aobout life in Alvarado	Alvarado	Archives
Silva, Mary	Mary Silva	Interviewer: Philip Holmes Creator: Philip Holmes	Walking tour	Part 3 Mary talks about Alvarado buildings on a Walking /Driving tour. Part 4. Mary continues the tour in the car and then the group asks her questions about her pictures and her antiques in her home.	Alvarado	Archives
Stevenson, Jack	Jack Stevenson	Interviewer: Robert Fisher Creator: Robert Fisher	Interview	Jack Stevenson discusses his family that moved from Michigan to Centerville (Fremont) and bought a large ranch. The first home was built in 1853. Many different settling families are mentioned in addition to his own: Juries, Halpins, Mallons, Francis, Mowrys, Beards, Machados, Rixes, Bernhardtts, Plummers, Hollies, Andrades, Emersons (especially Doc Emerson), and Larkins. Many places that made up Fremont are mentioned.	Centerville	Archives
Tyson, Edna	Edna Tyson	Interviewer: Robert B. Fisher Creator: Robert B. Fisher	Interview	Talks about the Tyson family settling in Niles in 1850. William Tyson built their home in 1868. They had nine children (Emiline Morrison was the wife). Edna discusses the famlies and their relationships.	Niles	Archives

Wagner, Georgia Chalmers	Georgia Chalmers Wagner	Interviewer: Robert Fisher Creator: Robert Fisher	Interview	Georgia outlines the family tree the Scotts at Scotts Corner, the Snyder Family, to Georgia's mother Minnie Chalmers.	Scotts Corner	Archives
Wagner, Georgia Chalmers	Georgia Chalmers Wagner	Interviewer: Robert Fisher Creator: Robert Fisher	Discussion	Georgia Wagner discusses her memories of Centerville, Newark, the Snyder family and several other families. Several people are talking in the background.	Centerville, Newark, Snyder	Archives
Walton, Allan	Allan Walton 1	Interviewer: Philip Holmes Creator: Philip Holmes	Walking Tour and Talk of Centerville	Allan Walton leads a walking tour of Centerville where he was born and raised. He remembers how the town looked in 1906 and how it has changed. Walton was a pharmacist who owned a pharmacy and other properties in town. Part 1 of 2	Centerville	Archives
Walton, Allan	Allan Walton 2	Interviewer: Philip Holmes Creator: Philip Holmes	Tour and Talk of Centerville	Allan Walton continues to lead a walking tour of Centerville where he was born and raised. Part 2 of 2	Centerville	Archives
Whipple, Laura Thane	Laura Thane Whipple	Interviewer: Julianne Howe	Interview	Laura Whipple talks about the family move from Oakland to Niles and then about families (Donavan, Tyson, Nichols, Ford, Sanbourne), places (Vallejo Mills Niles school) and other topics (water rights)	Niles	Archives
Williams , Burdette	Burdette Williams	Interviewer: Unknown Creator: Unknown	Interview	Burdette Williams talks about the Chadbourne farm and the Chadbourne Carriage house where he lived and farmed. Williams also talks about farming in the area with his brother, in the business, Williams Bros., which shipped first tomatoes to New York in 1924.	Chadbourne land	Archives